102 DEVELOPMENT OF TRAINING PROGRAM: TRAINING PROGRAMME FOR EMPLOYEES WORKING WITH UASC

The partnership has started working in the development of the training program. Each partner is now developing one training module of the course which is going to be integrated into a digital platform in the following months. The training program seeks to address the needs and gaps of knowledge and skills of professionals working with UASC (coordinators of reception centers, head of departments of local social services, trainers, persons responsible for training programs).

The consortium will develop a training program which will give professionals the right tools to:

- Address the specific needs of UASC and strengthen their resilience
- Better tackle and facilitate the active participation of UASC in their acculturation process, their social integration and inclusion in the hosting communities
- Ensure proper, specific and up-to-date information provided to UASC
- Facilitate peer to peer collaboration between UASC

The topics of the modules include: 1) Basic presentation of the UASCs context, 2) Legal framework at partner country level and general European framework, 3) Societal integration (school, work, etc.), 4) Intercultural competences, 5) Gender mainstreaming, equality, and non-discrimination, 6) Coping with the emotional problems of the minors, 7) Guardianship. Foster care. Coming of age.

OUR NEWS

4TH TRANSNATIONAL PARTNERS MEETING

The 4th Transnational Partners Meeting took place in Thessaloniki between the 10th and 11th of May 2022. The meeting was hosted by United Societies of Balkans (USB), partner of the project in Greece at their office.

Partners discussed the development of the modules as well as the next steps of the project.

Meanwhile, they had the chance to do a study visit at the NAOMI Workshop Thessaloniki where they got informed about their actions and the opportunities they give to refugees and migrants.
