Training for Better Integration of Unaccompanied Minors

The outcomes of the projects are:

GAP ASSESSMENT AND ROAD MAP

TRAINING PROGRAMME

4_ONE_ANOTHER E-LEARNING PLATFORM

101

102

103

THE PROJECT AIMS TO:

- 1) provide UASC and youth with the necessary tools for achieving a successful life and work towards their integration;
- 2) address the role of professionals working in reception centers: cultural mediators and social workers.

102 DEVELOPMENT OF TRAINING PROGRAM: TRAINING PROGRAMME FOR EMPLOYEES WORKING WITH UASC

The partnership has developed all training modules of the future e-learning platform based on the following structure:

- Module 1: Basic presentation of the UASCs
- Module 2: Legal framework at partner country level and general European framework.
- Module 3: Societal integration (school, work, etc.)
- Module 4: Intercultural competences
- Module 5: Gender mainstreaming, equality, and non-discrimination.
- Module 6: Coping with the emotional problems of the minors
- Module 7: Foster care and other form of caring. Coming to Age

The training modules will act as “chapters” of the overall e-learning platform and will be used as self-paced learning experiences that include written content, audio, video, and other visual elements.

Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

IO3

The partnership is currently developing the structure and design of the e-learning platform, which corresponds to IO3. It will include a wide range of training modules providing a mix of theoretical information, learning activities, and practical guidance to enhance the skills of professionals working with unaccompanied minors, thus providing cost-effective education.
